

History of Cottage Cemetery . . .

The Cottage Place was the summer home of Aphra Pritchard Eve and her (Sea) Captain Oswald, Jr. In 1800 on nearby land, two acres were set aside for a family cemetery. The first burial, in 1803, was that of August Belinda Eve, the couples' one year old daughter.

Memorials placed in the cemetery during the 20th and 21st centuries include: acclaimed artist Josephine Sibley Couper, James Hammond "Pete" Carmichael, noted wildlife photographer.

Following their evaluation of AHCC, the CHICORA Foundation, a Historic Preservation Agency in Columbia, SC, stated: "The cemetery may be eligible for inclusion on the National Register of Historic Places under criteria B (association with the lives of persons of significance in the past)".

Anne Moore and Oswald Eve, Sr. married at Christ Church in Philadelphia in 1744. He was elected President, Port of Philadelphia in 1766. Records show that Paul Revere visited Eve's gunpowder mill in 1777.

In 1765 St. Phillips Parish, SC, ship builder Paul Pritchard married Ann Conner. Pritchard's pre-Revolution shipyards were in operation 78 years on Hobcaw Creek near Charleston, SC. Among Hobcaw vessels built was the 200 ton Magna Carta built in 1770. Two daughters of Paul and Ann Pritchard are buried in Cottage Cemetery.

Aphra Ann Pritchard and Oswald Eve, Jr., Hannah Singletary and Joseph Eve, Catherine Pritchard and Christopher FitzSimmons are progenitors of those buried in Cottage Cemetery.

AHCC has 120 monuments placed as a memorial to this remarkable family who contributed greatly to the fabric of our society.

AHCC needs your help!

The progress needs to continue. Our committee of cousins are all volunteers—donating time, resources and money to the cemetery. Several grants and family donations have gone a long way toward reparation and restoration. Ongoing expenses are lawn care, lighting and website. Your contribution is tax deductible, and will be greatly appreciated. Thank you.
